UMCOR SUNDAY, MARCH 31

By Kay Dumas

Imagine seeing your home being swept away by flood waters, or a hurricane, like we had recently in North Carolina, or the wildfires in California, or the recent tornadoes in Alabama and wondering when or if you could return home. When a disaster strikes a community, the United Methodist Committee on Relief (UMCOR), is one of the first agencies in and the last out. UMCOR puts the beliefs of the church into action and makes a real difference in the world.

Cokesbury's work team has witnessed the devastation and destruction of floods and have spent weeks helping people from the mountains to the coast, Florida, and two countries, rebuild their homes and put their lives back together. This was made possible by UMCOR. On Sunday, March 31, we all will have an opportunity to continue to support UMCOR with our financial gifts. Make you check payable to Cokesbury and mark it for UMCOR.
